Basketball, Boy's 8th grade

Last night the 8th grade boy's basketball team played their home opener against Taylor. The Huskies started out fast starting with a 9-2 run. However, the Titans were able to go on a few runs on the night ending the 1st and 3rd quarters. The Huskies led the entire game and were able to hold off a final run by Taylor at the end of regulation to secure a 45-36 Victory against the undefeated Titans. The "A" team is now 4-2 and will play Lapel at home on November 29 at 5:30. Great job boys!

Basketball, Boy's 7th grade

Last night, the 7th grade boy's basketball team hosted the Taylor Titans. The Huskies overcame a 6-point halftime deficit to play a really good second half and pull away with a 49 - 41 victory.

The team converted 10 of 12 free throws in the 4th quarter. The Huskies were led offensively by Jack Kakasuleff, Cy Mason, and Jackson Mikesell.

The next game is Monday, November 29th against Lapel.

Basketball, Boy's 6th grade

Last night the 6th grade boy's basketball season had their first road game at Taylor. The boys started slow and fell behind early down 11 going into half. However, similarly to the first game the Huskies showed a lot of heart and fought back in the second half and narrowed the gap to 6 points. At the end they came up short with a final score of 34-23.

In the second game, the Huskies started out fast and forced a lot of turnovers. They played great team basketball passing to the open man and had incredible defense. The Huskies won 20-0. All the boys played tough and showed great sportsmanship. The Huskies play again after Thanksgiving on November 29 at Fall Creek.
