HAMILTON HEIGHTS

Hamilton Heights High School

Monday, January 07, 2019

Our mission at Hamilton Heights High School is to empower students to participate in a technologically challenging, global environment. Our school community aspires to graduate healthy, responsible citizens who are life-long learners and creative, critical thinkers.

Our Vision

We envision that Hamilton Heights High School will consistently be ranked in the top ten percent of the schools in Indiana based on benchmarks for achievement, and that our students will be equipped academically and socially to successfully perform in and adapt to the changing global society.

Scores & Shout Outs

The 9th grade Boys Basketball team traveled to Noblesville Saturday to try and split a 2 game series with the Sophomore JV team. The Huskies dropped a 48-44 decision on December 15 and were looking to settle the score. Heights led 50-31 after 3 quarters and finished with a 62-49 victory. Braden Kinder led with 22 pts. Drew VanOeveren added 18 pts. Isaac Tuma has 13 pts and 7 rebs. Harrison Hochstedler added 7 pts and Nate Hulen had 2 pts. The Huskies stand at 9-1 and face Eastern Tuesday night. This was a great team win for the Huskies after a great series of practices over break.

This is the Hamilton Heights Official Store to get all of your Husky gear. We've got t-shirts, sweatshirts, bags, hats, yard signs and much more! Run by the students of Hamilton Heights BPA, the Husky Fan Shop will be selling husky spirit merchandise at all home Varsity games and online at huskyfanshoponline.com
