Varsity: Tough loss to Yorktown to start the season off. 2-0. We played a much better second half. If we keep our heads up we will easily bounce back. Phoenix Vondersaar was player of the game due to his positive attitude and hard work on the field. He helped create many opportunities and kept the team uplifted.

Varsity and JV faced off against Lebanon. JV started out the night with an impressive win in three sets with scores of 20-25, 25-10, and 15-10. Varsity then followed with a hard fought win against the tigers. They went to 4 sets with scores of 20-25, 25-16, 25-20, and 25-17. The entire team worked together to come out on top with a victory. But leading the pack was libero Kennedy Cherry with several aces while also dominating the back row. Hitters Macie Smith and Emma Blanton both had several kills tonight leading to the success of the team.
